“Believe you can and you are halfway there”.

A prosperous New Year 2024 to all my dear Scholars.

Hope this year brings forth immense prosperity and glory, may you all be able to actualise your yearning dreams and aspirations.

Remember to stay optimistic throughout, preferably in the tasks that you undertake, by having a positive approach towards all that you orient yourself. Earmark your time for lending a helping hand to your parents and making your life purposeful and engaged.

An Annual Function is not just a showcase of talent, but also a celebration of unity, collaboration and the spirit of our institution. It was a reflection of the values you impart and memories as a Team Chavara Vidya Bhavan created together with mesmerising performances by our talented students and dedicated teachers. I acknowledge my heartfelt gratitude for the contribution of all those who worked really hard to make our 37th Annual Day celebration ‘XYNO’ of Chavara Vidya Bhavan, Somayampalayam, a resounding success.

Your meticulous efforts, merged with a well charted time schedule, will enable you to systemize your learning pattern. Your exams are very near and I hope all will give their level best to procure the best scores. Now that you have a brief time left for the academic year to end, and it is required from each one of you to start gearing up from scratch for the annual examination which is on the horizon.

Grades from 1-8 & 9-12 should strictly premeditate and follow a rigorous routine with substantial time rendered on the study materials and recapitulating the same on a daily basis for better retention of what you have learnt. Students in general, especially those appearing for board exams, should always have positive energy, and that will help you achieve your optimum.

So, once again I wish good luck to all of you for the fast approaching exam. Let the Almighty God shower his mercy on all of you to pass the examination with flying colors and for bringing immense results to our institution.

With Prayers & Regards

Unveiling the Gateway to a Brighter Future

“There is more treasure in books than in all the pirates' loot on Treasure Island” - Walt Disney

We all develop many hobbies in our life. Very few last long. But one hobby to be cherished for life is ‘Reading.’ In an era dominated by digital distractions and fleeting attention spans, the significance of reading often takes a backseat. But once we understand the transformative power of books and the impact they have on our personal, academic, and professional growth, we will never leave a page unturned. Let me delve into the importance of reading and why it should be celebrated, encouraged, and embraced by all.

Reading is a valuable skill that can enrich our life in many ways. It can improve our knowledge, vocabulary, creativity, critical thinking, and communication skills. We can learn new words and expressions and also learn how to use them correctly. Apart from providing entertainment, relaxation, and inspiration, it also improves our mental and emotional well-being. The highlighting reward is that it helps us escape from the stress and boredom of reality.

Reading is imperative because it helps us learn new things and expand our horizons. Reading can expose us to different perspectives, cultures, and experiences that we may not encounter in our daily life. It can also help us understand ourselves and others better, as we can empathise with the characters and situations in the books. Reading can also stimulate our imagination and creativity. We can explore different genres and topics to broaden our scope and challenge ourselves.

It is such a rewarding and enjoyable activity that can enrich our life in many ways. It can help us learn, grow, and achieve our potential. Therefore, we should make reading a part of our daily routine and discover the wonders of the world of books.

So, open a book, turn the page, and let your mind soar to new heights.

Parents' Corner

As a proud mother of four children enrolled at Chavara Vidhya Bhavan Matriculation Higher Secondary School, I feel compelled to share my thoughts and experiences regarding the school. Having entrusted the education of my kids to this institution, I believe it's important to provide feedback that may assist other parents in making informed decisions about their children's education. One of the standout aspects of Chavara Vidhya Bhavan is its commitment to academic excellence. The school's curriculum is well-structured, and the teachers exhibit a genuine passion for imparting knowledge. My children have shown significant progress in their academic endeavors, and I attribute this to the school's emphasis on a comprehensive learning experience. Chavara Vidhya Bhavan goes beyond academics and prioritises the holistic development of students. The school encourages extracurricular activities, fostering a well-rounded growth that extends beyond the classroom. My kids have had the opportunity to explore their interests in sports, arts, and cultural activities, contributing to their overall development. The school creates a supportive and nurturing environment for its students. The teachers and staff are approachable, and I appreciate their dedication to fostering a positive atmosphere conducive to learning. The communication between the school and parents is commendable, ensuring a collaborative approach to the education and well-being of our children. Chavara Vidhya Bhavan boasts excellent infrastructure and modern facilities. From well-equipped classrooms to advanced laboratories and a library, the school provides an environment that enhances the learning experience. The focus on technology integration also aligns with the evolving educational landscape. The school actively engages with parents and the local community. Regular parent-teacher meetings, cultural events, and collaborative initiatives foster a sense of community within the Chavara Vidhya Bhavan family. This inclusivity has positively impacted my perception of the school as a partner in my children's education.

In conclusion, my experience as a mother with four kids at Chavara Vidhya Bhavan Matriculation Higher Secondary School has been overwhelmingly positive. The school's commitment to academic excellence, holistic development, supportive environment, top-notch infrastructure, and community engagement make it a reputable institution that I wholeheartedly recommend to other parents seeking a nurturing and enriching educational environment for their children.

Rejoice The Charm of Tradition And Celebrate Pongal

Joy and fervour was in the air as the first festival of the year was celebrated, this year from 13 to 17 January. While in most part of the country, people celebrate this festival as Makar Sankranti and the people in South India celebrate it as the harvest festival in the name of Pongal which is traditionally celebrated to thank the Sun God for that particular year's cultivation. It has the origin in the farming cycle which marks the end of winter and the lovely beginning of Spring. It is considered as the day to honour the Sun God with colourfully decorated floor patterns called Kolam and a pot of fresh rice Pongal is prepared in the auspicious time. Thus all the members of a family rejoice the charm of tradition and celebrate Pongal festival by saying 'Pongalo Pongal'.

Birds Make You Smile, So Let Them Live For A While

Birds are nature's special and priceless gifts to man. They are so different in nature and are eco-friendly exterminators for the environment. They work to pollinate plants, then fertilize blooms and create feminized seeds. They make humans smile and be happy in many ways. They have the ability to change our mood and energy levels instantly by forcing us to stop the work that we do and pay close attention to them. They are super efficient at relaxing our body and mind and making us forget the past and feel better in the present. Though they are a gift to us, the hardest thing is that we destroy their lives through activities like deforestation, urbanization, and so on. Let us all make a decision to save them and let them live well for a while.

Families Are Bonded By Unbreakable Love

"In the time of test, family is best"

Family is where one can find love, support, and acceptance. Love in a family is the most important thing to have. It is what shows the relationship between each other in a family. Thus, love is defined as the divine sentiment between one person and another person, which they sacrifice for one another. In a family, showing love can lift a person's spirit, no matter what situation they may be in. When a family can feel love for each other, they can possibly achieve their needs and wishes. It is what makes people connected to the world and society. So, love is possibly the most amazing thing you can feel as a human and the most magical thing you can have in a family.

Education Is The Greatest Treasure That Can Be Never Robbed

Education is the precious treasure of human life. It is the wealth of a person and also the nation. It is valued more than a diamond and other riches. The decision to invest in your education is the biggest achievement that you can achieve in your life. It is like a seed in the fertile soil; when it gets enough sunlight, water and air, it will grow into a big tree that can give us fresh fruits, air, and shelter to live. It also helps us to answer life's big questions and is the key to opening the door to a successful life. If we can gain and earn it through hard work, it gives us the real knowledge and skills that can take us anywhere in our lives' situations.

Jai Jawan Jai Kisan

Lal Bahadur Shastri, who owns the phrase 'Jai Jawan Jai Kisan', was the Second Prime Minister of Independent India. It takes us to the olden days of 1965. When Lal Bahadur Shastri was the Prime Minister, war broke out with Pakistan, and he coined the famous phrase, 'Jai Jawan Jai Kisan' which literally means 'Victory to the soldiers, victory to the farmers to boost the morale of soldiers and farmers in the midst of food shortages during the war.' It is not only a matter of pride for the Indian Army but also for every citizen of India. War fought and won for self-respect and natural prestige for using defense force with such admirable skill that the nation remains held is something to be remembered forever.

ONE RELIGION, ONE CASTE AND ONE GOD FOR MANKIND

One caste, one religion and one God for man
Whatever be the religion man should be better
Great men would die but their, words are cherished forever
It is work of men of God to teach the godly way
But man goes in his manly ways – crooked and bloody
Religion and caste does not teach hatred
And it doesn't crave for human blood.
In that we forgot human life
And value the basic love and sacrifice of men.

LIVE BY CHANCE, LOVE BY CHOICE & KILL BY PROFESSION

The hapless Indian army from the dark
That lies beyond creation,
All blinded by the solar spark
And leader less in lands forlorn,
Come stumbling through the mists of morn
With taloned fingers dripping red
Bestrew the sadden world with death
The hapless army bears no sword
Fells destiny fulfilling
It marches where the murder hordes
Amid the fair new urge of life
With poison stream, shot and knife
Make carnival of killing
No war above black hell's abyss
Knows evil grin and foul as this.

VOICE OF ALUMNI

As an alumna of Chavara Vidya Bhavan, I am profoundly grateful for the vital role our school has played in shaping the person I am today. I still remember on my first day of grade 4, when I first joined Chavara Vidya Bhavan, my mother left me in the classroom, and I found myself surrounded by new classmates who eventually became an integral part of my life. The bonds formed within those walls created a network of individuals who continued to inspire and uplift one another.

I am grateful to all my teachers who are the guiding lights in my educational journey. They have been instrumental in shaping my character and achievements. No words can express my gratitude towards my teachers. They went beyond imparting textbook knowledge, serving as mentors who guided me in the continuous process of self-improvement.

The opportunities to explore diverse interests allowed me to discover my strengths, weaknesses, and passions. Chavara set the stage for me to become who I am. It's the place where I realised my passion.

The lessons learned, both inside and outside the classroom, have become an integral part of my character.

I am grateful for the transformative years spent at Chavara. I will surely say my teachers made me take each and every step in the stairs of life. Without my teachers, I wouldn't have become the exact same person today. The lessons learned, and experiences gained at Chavara have collectively shaped who I am. As an alumna, I carry with me the enduring impact of my school, forever thankful for the foundation it provided in creating my identity and influencing my journey beyond the school gates.
